Two Bad Ants

YOU ARE AN ANT! Draw a picture from an ant's point of view of another *predicament that the ant has gotten into.
*("predicament: a situation that is unpleasant or difficult")

Describe the ant's situation:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________