<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Content</th>
<th>Distinguished</th>
<th>Proficient</th>
<th>Apprentice</th>
<th>Novice</th>
<th>Unacceptable</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Information About Presentation Topic | • Information is provided in a concise, imaginative, and insightful manner.
   • Exceptional examples and details are provided.
   • Presentation provides a thought-provoking, accurate analysis of the issue or concept.
| Organization and Design of Presentation | • Introduction, body, and conclusion are effectively developed.
   • Transitions are consistently employed to achieve unity.
   • Pacing is excellent. Allotted time is used to the fullest potential.
   • Each group member participates equally and effectively with enthusiasm.
| Delivery of Presentation | • Group members speak loudly and clearly, consistently making eye contact with the audience.
   • Presentation effectively incorporates visuals.
   • Both the presenters and the presentation captivate the audience.
   • Dress/appearance and movement enhance the setting and topic.
| Visuals | • Visuals are clearly visible to the audience.
   • Appearance of visuals is creative, imaginative, and well-designed.
   • Information chosen for visual is well-chosen, accurate, and specific.
   • Imaginative titles and/or labels are provided consistently when appropriate.

J. Nardone
Based on the work of S. Webster
Updated 8/11/2013